

Why volunteer with Girlguiding UK

Here are my top 10 reasons why volunteering with Girlguiding UK is AMAZING.

1. Watching girls grow – It's an incredible honour to help shape the lives of girls and young women. We get a front row seat to help support, facilitate and celebrate their growth.
2. Training – Throughout your volunteering journey, there are lots of training opportunities.
3. Badges – Who doesn't love a shiny new badge to sew on their camp blanket! As a leader, there are opportunities to achieve badges too.
4. Skill development – Expanding existing skills and learning new ones. Volunteering with Girlguiding UK really brings the opportunity to increase your skills.
5. Community – As a volunteer you'll be working as part of a team. This is an incredible opportunity to meet new people, build life long friendships and get support.
6. Challenge your beliefs and assumptions – The promise helps you to develop your own personal values, beliefs and way of living.
7. Adventure – There are always opportunities to get involved with different adventures! From local camp outs to international trips, there's always something for everyone.
8. Inclusion and flexibility – With so many different opportunities for volunteering comes flexibility and an option for everyone.
9. Supports job prospects – Volunteer work shows dedication, passion and reliability, so including Girlguiding volunteering on your CV can really help to open up new job prospects.
10. Fun – Everything in Girlguiding is designed to be fun and accessible. Leave work at the door and for a few hours, just live in the here and now, smiling along with your girls.
