Welcome message

We are really pleased that you are interested in joining our team. This is a really exciting time for Girlguiding North West England as we are planning lots of exciting events and activities for our members.

About Girlguiding

Girlguiding is the leading charity for girls and young women in the UK and the largest female-focused charity, delivering guiding meetings that give girls and young women a space where they can be themselves, have fun, build brilliant friendships, gain valuable life skills and make a positive difference to their lives and their communities. Through these weekly meetings our girls and young women are exposed to fabulous age-appropriate opportunities.

Our youngest group, called Rainbows, are girls aged four to seven, they take part in lots of different fun activities such as exploring the wider world through interactive games and unique events.

Brownies are girls aged seven to ten, being a Brownie opens up a world of exciting challenges and the opportunity to try new things such as camping adventures and once-in-a-lifetime events.

Guides are girls aged 10 to 14 who are given the chance to develop their individual skills and abilities, to explore their attitudes and develop their personal opinions, and to try out new challenges as part of a team. Guides can get involved in anything from adventure sports to performing arts, travel and taking part in social action projects.

The Ranger section offers young women aged 14 to 18 the opportunity to develop their skills and abilities through a flexible and inspiring programme. Our oldest youth members are offered a huge variety of challenges, activities and opportunities for personal development, including overseas development projects, young leadership and advocacy.

Girlguiding is made up of nine Regions and countries of which Girlguiding North West England is one.

About Girlguiding North West England

Role Description

Head of Marketing & Communications

Purpose: This role is a key member of the small staff team at the Girlguiding North West England Region Office, led by the Executive Manager. The role contributes to the provision of services supporting marketing, communications, and engagement across the region.

The successful applicant must have excellent line management, verbal, and written communication skills. They must be able to build positive relationships with staff, volunteers and external partners at all levels and have a working knowledge of Microsoft Office.

As part of the Region team, the Head of Marketing & Communications Manager will lead on marketing, communications, and engagement to ensure the delivery of the Girlguiding North West England Region Strategy. They will be responsible for growing our reach and impact through the positive promotion of Girlguiding North West England to external audiences, engaging with the press, supporting our membership through effective internal communications, and managing a range of digital content that supports our strategy. Additionally, this role will develop and lead the delivery of external engagement and support volunteer-led projects in growth and retention, communications, and engagement.

Responsibilities:

- Line manage the Inclusive & Impactful Team (Engagement & Influence Officer, Digital & Design Officer, Income Generation Coordinator and Grants & Fundraising Officer) and work to deliver agreed priorities across the region.
- Support the team in carrying out their duties and provide advice where necessary.
- Work with lead volunteers and the marketing and communications team to create and facilitate the delivery of a marketing and communications strategy for the region.
- Work in conjunction with subgroups and advisers to determine annual budget spend based on strategic priorities and monitor expenditure.
- Lead the development of external reach and new projects, including volunteer recruitment, strengthening relations with the press and media, and creating new marketing resources.
- Oversee digital content, promotional design material, and information created for the region's website, social media, and other communications.
- Work with staff and volunteers to ensure events and activities create impact through press coverage and public engagement.
- Lead regional press and media engagement and develop relationships with local press and media as required.
- Collaborate with lead volunteers on the research, design, development, and administration of region events and initiatives, including competitions, social action projects, and awards.
- Work closely with Girlguiding's national communications and engagement teams to ensure consistency.
- Facilitate and manage partnership relationships to help deliver objectives and meet strategic needs associated with marketing, communications, and income generation.

- To oversee the region ambassador programme and utilise ambassadors to raise the profile of GGNWE.
- Help facilitate the Operations board as required (shared responsibility) and report on the team's activity.
- Attend and or coordinate attendance at recruitment fairs such as volunteering and freshers fairs, to enhance Girlguiding North West England's presence and recruit volunteers.
- Represent the region as required and share best practices with other countries and regions.
- Provide regular reports and updates on projects and areas of work.
- Maintain effective communication systems with volunteers.
- Provide absence cover for the Region Office team as required.
- Contribute to the efficiency and improvement of office systems to support effective administration for all areas of regional services, recommending improvements to the Executive Manager and implementing any agreed changes.
- Work flexibly to provide out-of-hours support when needed.
- Undertake any other duties that may reasonably be required to fulfil the requirements of this post.

Additional Information:

- The role is a hybrid role, with some home working and some office-based work at Girlguiding North West England Headquarters, Preston.
- The role may require occasional travel to multiple locations both in the North West and across the UK.
- Due to the nature of the work, occasional weekend and out-of-hours working will be required across North West England, for which time off in lieu will be offered.
- You will be expected to actively promote the Girlguiding North West England vision, mission, and values.
